MESSAGE

With profound joy and appreciation, I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the Central Kolkata Science and Culture Organization for Youth on organising the 28th National Integration and Youth Leadership Camp at Assam University, Silchar, from 24 to 31 December 2025.

India's youth, vibrant and dynamic, are the architects of our nation's future. Their energy, creativity, and sense of purpose are central to building a Golden India—a nation defined by prosperity, inclusivity, innovation, and global leadership.

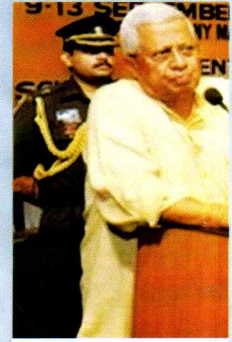

It is truly inspiring to witness young minds convening under the powerful theme "Empowerment of Youth for Golden India." This camp offers an ideal platform to nurture leadership, foster unity, and instil values that will shape responsible citizens committed to national development.
